

Our bereavement care

Bereavement support is available for family and friends of people who have died in the care of North London Hospice. We aim to support you through your loss and help you make the transition to your new circumstances.

We offer:

- one-to-one support
- group meetings with others in a similar position
- Ceremony of Remembrance, to honour the person you have lost

Bereavement support takes place at our Finchley or Winchmore Hill sites. It is provided by a trained volunteer. All personal information is treated confidentially.

If you would like some bereavement support, please contact the Bereavement Support Service.

Telephone: 020 8343 8841

E-mail: nlh@northlondonhospice.co.uk

Approximately one month after your loss, we will contact you by letter or telephone with more information.

Please let us know if you change your address, phone number or email details.

If you would like a copy of our Statement of Purpose that gives a full explanation of the services we offer, it is available on request.
